A Timeless Tale of Sisterhood and Adventure

At the heart of "The Wayfaring Sisters" lies the enduring bond between two sisters: Eliza and Amelia. Eliza, the elder sister, is a woman of indomitable spirit and sharp intellect, driven by an unquenchable thirst for knowledge and adventure. Amelia, on the other hand, possesses a compassionate heart and a keen eye for beauty, seeking solace in the written word and the wonders of nature. Despite their contrasting personalities, the sisters share an unbreakable connection that transcends all obstacles and propels them forward on their extraordinary journey.

Their story begins in the heart of Victorian London, where the sisters yearn for a life beyond the confines of societal expectations. Driven by a shared dream of freedom and adventure, they defy conventions and embark on a perilous journey into the unknown. Their path leads them across the Atlantic Ocean to the untamed wilderness of 19th-century America, where they encounter both breathtaking beauty and unimaginable challenges.

A Vivid Tapestry of Time and Place

Dave Barter's masterful storytelling skills transport you effortlessly through time and place, immersing you in the vibrant world of the Victorian era and the untamed wilderness of the American frontier.
